

W.L. Hailey Ranked in Top 100 Private Companies by Nashville Business Journal
Nashville, Tenn., July, 2006

W. L. Hailey & Company, Inc., is one of the top 100 private companies for 2006, according to the Nashville Business Journal. The list, based on 2005 revenue, ranks W.L. Hailey & Company as the 67th private company in the Nashville area. "Placing among the top 100 private companies is a point of pride for every employee," said Tom Battan, President and CEO of W.L. Hailey & Company. "We strive to work with integrity, develop enduring relationships, and seek proficient work methods, establishing a superior track record that enables our clients to meet compliance at the lowest possible cost."

Founded in 1925, W.L. Hailey & Company, Inc. provides multifaceted, heavy construction services for both municipal and private customers, with an emphasis on infrastructure projects that include the treatment and conveyance of water and wastewater. One of the largest environmental construction firms in the US, W.L. Hailey employs more than 350 highly skilled and experienced managers and craftsmen who provide professional expertise, accuracy and efficiency while working in challenging work environments.

For more information, visit www.wlhailey.com.